

FAQ's – LIFE GROUPS

What is the purpose of Life Groups?

The purpose of Life Groups is to provide an environment where Life Group members can experience authentic community and spiritual growth. They exist to help people take the next steps in their spiritual growth journeys, as well as build relationships with other people who are on similar journeys themselves, personally and spiritually.

What is the format of Life Groups?

Each group is different. The leader determines the exact format and study of the Life Group. However, each group does consist of 5 to 12 or more people who provide love, support, friendship, connection and spiritual strength. The format is an informal and comfortable 1½-2 hour gathering at the home of a Host.

How do I get into a group?

It's easy. Go to lifechurchwi.com. Click Connect and then go to Life Groups. Towards the bottom of the page click on "List of Current Groups / Sign up Here". There you will find a complete list of all the groups we offer and are also able to sign up. Or you can pick up a Life Group brochure at the information area of the hub/foyer next time you are at Life Church.
